

Sinclair's decision to force their member stations to run that election campaign commercial reminds me of something the former Soviet Union would do. It should be stopped!